Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Copy of Reports: Of Local Government Board Inspectors on the Working of the Public Health Act, 1872 In reply to your letter of the 22nd instant, requesting me to furnish the Board as early as practicable with a general report showing the course which I adopted with a view of giving effect to the recommendations of the Board, and the manner in which those recommendations have been acted upon by the sanitary authorities with regard to the appointing of medical officers of health and inspectors of nuisances under the Public Health Act, 1872, I have the honour to submit the following report. In attempting a general sketch of the measures adopted within the limits of my district for the administration of the Public Health Act, it may be expedient to refer briefly to the instructions, oral and written, by which the Inspectors were made acquainted with the policy of the Board in relation to the Act, and with the spirit in which it was desired that they should conduct their negotiations with the local authorities. At the conferences which took place between the Board and their Inspectors immediately after the passing of the Act, the latter were specially warned against hasty action; they were to consider the circumstances of each district and locality, and advise the authorities in making the appointments required by the Act to secure the services of efficient officers from whatever source they could be obtained, but they received no instructions authorising them in any way to force the hand of the local authorities, or to control or fetter them in the exercise of the discretionary powers conferred by the Act; the...
