By Lucius Annaeus Seneca

White Crow Books. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 228 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. Lucius Annaeus Seneca was one of the great Roman Stoic thinkers and is one of only a few philosophers from that era whose work has remained popular in recent times. His writings were known by many of the early churchmen including St. Jerome, St. Augustine and the ancient church writer Tertullian who referred to him as Our Seneca. It was Tertullian who first suggested that Seneca had corresponded with St. Paul and although the letters survive, certain scholars have dismissed them as forgeries in later years. Seneca's older brother Gallio was said to have met St Paul in Achaia. Gallio was proconsul of the senatorial province of Achaia and according to the Bible he dismissed a charge brought by the Jews against the apostle Paul: Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, If you Jews were making a complaint about some misdemeanor or serious crime, it would be reasonable for me to listen to you. But since it involves questions about words and names and your own law-settle the matter yourselves. I will not be a judge of such things....

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

This publication is great. It is full of wisdom and knowledge. You will not really feel monotony at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for relating to when you ask me).
